The Point no.5 on page 25 of DNIT may be read as follows:

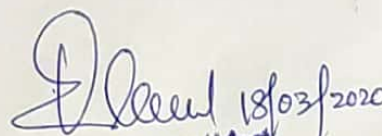

5. Security Deposit (SD):

The contractor whose tender has been accepted shall deposit an additional sum, at the time of executing the Contract Agreement, which along with the Bid security submitted with the tender, will make the SD equal to 10% (ten percent) of the approved tender cost i.e. contract value. The contractor shall furnish a demand draft or bank guarantee issued by a scheduled bank in India and in the proforma provided in section-7 Part-B, of the additional sum. The contractor needs to submit additional SD, if asked to do so by BSNL, due to hike in minimum wages by central government. BSNL reserve right to review SD requirement on half yearly basis.

The SD has to be submitted in the form of demand draft/ Bankers cheque or bank guarantee issued by a scheduled bank in India and in the proforma provided in section-7 Part-B, from any nationalized / scheduled Bank, payable at Vijayawada in the name of "Accounts Officer (Cash), O/o GMTD, BSNL, VIJAYAWADA". The SD will be a non-interest bearing deposit, for any period what so ever. The proceeds of the SD shall be payable to the BSNL as compensation for any loss resulting from the contractor's failure to complete its obligations under the contract.

The SD shall be refunded after expiry of tender period provided there are no recoveries to be made arising out of poor quality of work, incomplete work and/or violation of any terms and conditions of the contract as stipulated in the bid document.

No interest will be paid to the contractor on the SD.
